

Script Feedback Questionnaire

CELT X

Please read the script with the questions below in mind. There are no right or wrong answers, just make sure you're as specific as possible.

Clarity

- At any point, were you confused about what was happening? If so, where?
- Were the character motivations clear throughout the story?
- Did you understand the world, rules, or context of the story without needing explanation?
- Was there any information you felt was missing or revealed too late?

Pacing

- Where (if anywhere) did the story start to drag or lose momentum?
- Were there scenes that felt repetitive or unnecessary?
- Did the story hold your attention through the middle?
- Did the ending arrive too quickly, too slowly, or at the right moment?

Character

- Which character were you most invested in, and why?
- Did any character feel underdeveloped or inconsistent?
- Were the relationships between characters clear and believable?
- Did character choices feel earned based on what we know about them?

Stakes & Tension

- What does the protagonist have to lose if they fail?
- Did the stakes feel strong and specific enough to keep you engaged?
- Where did you feel the most tension in the story?
- Were there moments where the tension dropped unexpectedly?
